JOINT STIPULATION TO STAY THE CASE FOR 90 DAYS

Plaintiff Gracenote, Inc. (“Gracenote”) and Defendant Free Stream Media Corp. (d/b/a Samba TV) (“Samba TV”) (together, “the parties”) jointly stipulate, subject to the Court’s approval, to stay this case for ninety (90) days and to extend all deadlines in the Scheduling Order by approximately 90 days. In support of this joint stipulation and request, the parties state as follows:

1. On February 19, 2020, the Court entered a Scheduling Order (D.I. 38).
2. Pursuant to the Scheduling Order, Gracenote’s infringement contentions, which must include pinpoint cites to Samba TV’s source code, are due on May 20, 2020.
3. Gracenote has begun its review of Samba TV’s source code, which was made available at the end of February on a secure computer in Samba TV’s counsel’s California offices. Gracenote needs to conduct extensive further review of the source code to be in a position to serve its infringement contentions.
4. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Gracenote has not been able to access Samba TV’s source code for further review and likely will not be able to access it in the near future.

5. The source code requires in-person inspection at a secure terminal, pursuant to the agreed procedures set forth in the Source Code Access Agreement (D.I. 37). However, such in-person inspection is not possible at the present time because California (where the source code is located) is under a stay-at-home order. In addition, Gracernote's experts reside in foreign countries and cannot travel to the United States.

6. Mehmet Celik, Gracernote's expert who resides in the Netherlands, has been barred from traveling to the U.S. since March 13, 2020, when President Trump instituted an entry ban for individuals traveling from the Netherlands and certain other countries. (See <https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/traveladvisories/presidential-proclamation--travel-from-europe.html>.)

7. Gracernote's other technical expert, Jaap Haitsma, resides in Chile, which has been under a state of emergency since March 19, 2020. (See <https://cl.embassy.gov/covid-19-information/>.) While there is no per se travel ban to the U.S. from Chile, the U.S. Embassy in Chile advises that the Chilean government may impose travel restrictions on those entering the country "with little or no advance notice." (See id.) Thus, any travel to the U.S. by Mr. Haitsma carries a substantial risk that he will be prohibited from returning to his home in Chile. Furthermore, flights into and out of Chile have been substantially reduced, making travel difficult at best. (See id.)

8. Even if Gracernote's experts could travel to the U.S., a recent executive order would prevent them from accessing Samba TV's source code. In particular, since March 19, 2020, the State of California, where the source code is located and maintained, has been subject to Executive Order N-33-20, which requires all California residents to stay at home. (See <https://www.gov.ca.gov/2020/03/19/governor-gavin-newsom-issues-stay-at-home-order/>.) Thus, the offices of Samba TV's counsel, which is the designated location for all review of Samba TV's source code, have been closed.

9. Gracenote's counsel are located in Illinois and New York, both of which are also subject to stay-at-home orders. (See <https://www.governor.ny.gov/news/governor-cuomo-signs-new-york-state-pause-executive-order>; <https://www2.illinois.gov/Pages/Executive-Orders/ExecutiveOrder2020-10.aspx>.)

10. Delaying the due date for infringement contentions will have a cascading effect on the other deadlines set forth in the Scheduling Order.

In light of the foregoing, the parties request that the Court stay this case for 90 days and extend all deadlines for approximately the same amount of time. The chart attached to this Joint Stipulation sets forth the current case schedule along with a proposed new schedule that moves each of the remaining deadlines by approximately 90 days.
